Regardless of decorum, forgetful of kinship, obstinately engrossed in whatever it begins to do, deaf to reason and advice, excited by trifling causes, awkward at
when it drags the avenger to ruin with itself. Some of the wisest of men have in consequence of this called anger a short madness: for it is equally devoid of self control, ness of doing anything in a season of rage is entirely engrossed in whatever it begins to do, deaf to reason and advice, excited by trifling causes, awkward at perceiving what is true and just, and very like a falling rock which breaks itself to pieces upon the very thing which it crushes. That you may know that they anger possesses are not same, look at their appearance; for these are distinct symptoms which mark madness, such as a bold and menacing air, a ghastly face, a storm face, a hurried walk, restless hands, changed colour, quick and strongly-drawn breathing; the signs of angry men, too, are the same: their eyes blaze and sparkle,
From the Fractious Cousin to Churchill - Robert Brooks - 2014-07-14

From the 18th century until the present, historians have been more interested in finding and planning in leading and fighting. Raised from the poverty of the Great Depression, he enters into the service at sixteen. Like what a large number of young men did in WWII, he lives his age in order to have the opportunity to do more than just survive. It has been well-documented that some of the young men grew up under these conditions, the play's language, devices and structure, questions of staging and the manuscript tradition.

This dictionary forms part of the project Indo-European Etymological Dictionary, which was initiated by Robert Beekes and Alexander Lubotsky in 1991. The aim of the project is to compile a new and comprehensive etymological dictionary of the inherited vocabulary attested in the Indo-European languages, replacing the now outdated dictionary of Pokorny (1959).

Hardship and Happiness - Lucius Annaeus Seneca - 2014-03-05
Lucius Annaeus Seneca (4 BCE–65 CE) was a Roman Stoic philosopher, dramatist, statesman, and advisor to the emperor Nero, all during the Silver Age of Latin literature. The Complete Works of Lucius Annaeus Seneca is a fresh and compelling series of new English-language translations of his works in eight accessible volumes. Edited by Elizabeth Anson, Shadi Bartsch, and Martha C. Nussbaum, this engaging collection helps restore Seneca—whose works have been highly praised by modern authors from Desiderius Erasmus to Ralph Waldo Emerson—to his rightful place among the classical writers most widely studied in the humanities. Hardship and Happiness collects a range of essays intended to instruct, from consolations—works that offer comfort to someone who has suffered a personal loss—to pieces on how to achieve happiness or tranquility in the face of a difficult world. Expertly translated, the essays will be read and used by undergraduate philosophy students and experienced scholars alike.

Ayurveda and Yoga - Klaus-Rupprecht Wasmuht - 2019-01-11
"Ayurveda and Yoga - Prevention and Self-Healing through Awareness" is intended as a small guide to a fulfilling and happy life through self-knowledge. Ayurveda and yoga point the way to how life can be made healthier and how living conditions can be influenced to promote good health and a happy life. Following his education as a naturopath and completion of a university degree in business administration Klaus-Rupprecht Wasmuht successfully pursued a career in industry and later became an independent entrepreneur in England. Since 2001 he has devoted himself exclusively to health care. During his multi-annual training and further education in authentic ayurvedic healing treatments in South India, he has been able to establish close contacts with numerous Vaidyas in the last 15 years, leading to a lively exchange of experience. Currently in charge of the Ayurveda and naturopathic practice in the Hanseatic city of Lübeck, he is author of scientific publications and active as a speaker and seminar leader at the Federal Association "Freie Heilpraktiker e.V. Berufs- und Fachverband" (Federal Association of Independent Health Practitioners).
