Children’s Literature Studies - Linda C. Salom - 2006

This supplement to standard children’s literature textbooks will be a help to instructors as they engage their students in discussions about selection of materials, censorship, dealing with curricular issues, the need to understand administrative policies, community beliefs, and their responses to these issues. It is designed to help instructors discuss books in ways that inspire collegiality, collaboration, and scholarship in book evaluation and selection. Using actual case studies, resource reviews and/or scenarios of censorship, religion, violence, ethnicity and other issues, the instructor will be able to encourage discussion and reflective thought about real issues faced by teachers and librarians as they select materials for classroom or school library use. The book is structured to the use of books as classroom materials, it will be a valuable asset to a school library’s professional collection and certainly valuable to the training of pre-service teachers and school librarians.
