happen in a vacuum.

While most furniture and household goods you can buy in a store remain more or less the same year after year, some people aren’t satisfied with the status quo. They see common items and seek to make them more. Whether it’s style or function, a renovation can be anything from making over a simple room to gutting the kitchen.

Whatever route you decide to go, it’s always smart to think carefully about what you're really looking for. Whether you’re traveling for business, pleasure or somewhere in between, getting around a new city can be difficult and frustrating if you don’t have the right information. In today’s digital world, you have all of the information right at your fingertips.

An interview with John B. dos Santos, a corporate strategist, is an excellent way to kick off the start of fastcompany.tv and scobleizertv. John B. dos Santos is a global innovation firm that helps organizations find human-centered solutions to business problems. He is a prominent thought leader in the field of innovation.

Ten Types of Innovation

Ten Types of Innovation is a must-read for any manager seriously interested in building an innovation culture rather than waiting around hoping for the next big thing.
