Jessica Wilkinson is Senior Policy Advisor for Energy & Infrastructure at The Nature Conservancy. She works with the Conservancy's External Affairs department, Global Energy & Infrastructure Program, and North America Energy & Infrastructure Program to develop, coordinate, and implement the organization's strategy for applying smart infrastructure siting principles to protect lands and waters. She represents The Nature Conservancy on the board of the American Wind and Wildlife Institute.

Before joining TNC, Wilkinson was a Senior Policy Analyst and Director of the Wetlands Program at the Environmental Law Institute in Washington, D.C., where she oversaw the Institute's program of wetlands research and training. Jessica received her Master's of Environmental Management from Yale University, School of Forestry and Environmental Studies and a BA in Environmental Science from Barnard College, Columbia University.
