

DINAH BEAR

Dinah Bear is an attorney based in Washington, D.C. She served for twenty-five years as General Counsel to the Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ), the environmental agency in the Executive Office of the President. Responsibilities of CEQ include advising the President on environmental matters, overseeing federal agencies' implementation of the National Environmental Policy Act, and coordinating interagency implementation of environmental law and policy.

Ms. Bear has a Bachelors of Journalism from the University of Missouri at Columbia, Missouri, and a law degree from McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento, California. She is a member of the District of Columbia Bar, California bar (inactive) and the Supreme Court Bar. She has chaired the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Environmental Law and the District of Columbia Bar Association's Section on Environment and Natural Resources. She has received the Distinguished Service Award from the Sierra Club, and the award for Distinguished Achievement in Environmental Law and Policy from the American Bar Association. She currently serves on the boards of Defenders of Wildlife, the Mt. Graham Coalition and Humane Borders.